

Essen City Centre Tour

City tour through the city. En route, the tour passes the UNESCO World Heritage Site Zollverein, Villa Hügel and the Krupp Belt with the new Thyssen Krupp Headquarters. A special site to visit is the Schurenbach former mining waste heap, which was transformed into a "landmark" during the Emscherpark International Building Exhibition. On the plateau at the top, there is now an almost 15-metre tall steel sculpture by the artist Richard Serra, entitled "Bramme for the Ruhr District". The view from this point is also truly unique.
